Monitoring and Evaluation of development projects

About the training workshop

This course is intended to strengthen participants' knowledge of M&E concepts and ability to set up an effective M&E system. If you would like to get acquainted with nuts and bolts of Monitoring and evaluation, the relationship between the latter and research then this course is for you. The course is structured around four (4) critical areas:

1. introduction to fundamentals of M&E
2. Digital data collection (also known as mobile data collection)
3. Data analysis using SPSS
4. Data presentation using infographics

Upon completion of the course, participants should be able to:

• Define key concepts as used in M&E

• Understand how to set M&E questions

• Develop an M&E plan for a development project

• Write a good project progress report and success stories

• Explain the features of the good M&E framework

• Collect data using ODK mobile app

• Analyze data using SPSS and or Stata

• Articulate different evaluation methods and the debate around counterfactual

• Demonstrate emerging trends and best practices in M&E

• Present data using infographics

Application process

Interested applicants are encouraged to send filled application form (see attachment) and their latest CVs to info@researchub.co.rw.